Faculty of Languages and Literature

Course Scheme & Syllabus

For

B.A. (HONOURS) ENGLISH

1st to 6th SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

2022–2023 Session Onwards

1. Mission:

The Department of English aims to engage young minds in creative and analytical thinking through literary studies that can effectively help in building a holistic and healthier human community. This objective is achieved by creating space for students to discuss both local and global issues critically and creatively. In view of it, the texts prescribed in the curricula are thoughtfully selected and taught through discussion, project work, and power-point presentation. Students are encouraged to express their views on the questions at issue to help them how to think and speak their hearts and minds.

The programme is designed to make students familiar with the fundamentals of literature, beginning with Indian and European classical literature. Further, students are exposed to a variety of genres, viz. poetry, drama, prose, and novel in order to broaden their literary horizon. Some interdisciplinary subjects, such as psychology, history, economics and political science are included to develop their interdisciplinary understanding. Film studies and Creative Writing help them explore various media to express their individual and collective consciousness.

The department's long term goals for this programme include these legacies: That each person who graduates with a BA (Hons.) in English from DAVU will have an enduring interest in language and literature; a sense of the presence of the literary and rhetorical past; an awareness of the depth and complexity of human existence perceived across the boundaries of time, place, culture, race, ethnicity, gender, socio-economic class and sexual orientation; a sense of involvement in aesthetic, cultural, and intellectual life, as well as in social and political issues; a developing understanding of the ability of great literature and language to awaken and challenge people to struggle with profound questions of human identity and values; and a personal critical perspective and sense of intellectual independence.

2. Programme Learning Outcomes:

Students will demonstrate the ability to

- a) read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures and modes.
- b) show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods and critical approaches to British, American and World Literature.
- c) write clearly, effectively and creatively. Also to ensure that their writing style is appropriate to the content, context and topics under discussion.
- d) develop and carry out research projects and locate, evaluate, organize and incorporate information effectively.
- e) articulate the relations among culture, history and texts.

3. Teaching Methodology:

a) Grammar:

Grammar must be taught descriptively in socio-cultural contexts. The contextual teaching of grammar helps a learner understand the application of grammar rules in real-life situations. The learner who learns grammar in isolation cannot use the language fluently, whereas the learner who learns grammar in contexts uses the language confidently and fluently in real-life situations.

b) Literary Texts:

The communicative approach should be followed to teach the texts. Classroom activities guided by the communicative approach try to produce meaningful and real communication at all levels. As a result, there may be more emphasis on skills than systems. Lessons are more learner-centred, and there may be the use of authentic materials.

Teachers can introduce the topic or theme of the text, pre-teach essential vocabulary items and use prediction tasks to arouse the interest and curiosity of students.

c) Writing:

Some of the strategies that should be adopted are as follows:

- i. Regularly assign brief writing exercises in your classes.
- ii. Provide guidance throughout the writing process, i.e. Pre-Writing, Drafting, Revising, Editing and Publishing.
- iii. Give students opportunities to talk about their writing.
- iv. Encourage students to revise their work.

d) Teaching- learning Strategies:

- i. Interactive and participative learning.
- ii. Individual and collaborative learning.
- iii. Making learning a process of construction of knowledge.
- iv. Experiential learning.
- v. To make learning individualized, creative and dynamic through digital resources.

4. Testing:

The examinations will be conducted as per the norms of the university.

a) Assessment for All Theory Papers:

Exam Type/Component	Weightage (%)
Mid Semester Examination	25
Written Quiz (Objective Type /MCQs)	10
Assignment and Project Work/Seminar (Evidence based)	10
End Semester Examination	50
Class Attendance	05
Total	100%

b) Assessment for Practical Paper (ENG152A):

Project File:

Each student will prepare a project file on any of the topics given by their class teacher. The student should be able to justify the contents of their scrap file. The file must be handwritten, not typed. The students must acknowledge all the sources of information in their scrap file.

Lab. Examination:

The end term lab. examination will be conducted as per the norms of the university. The distribution of marks in the end-term lab. examination is as follows:

Component	Weightage
Project File Marks will be given on the basis of originality, creativity and presentation. The student will receive credit for their command of the language also.	30 %
Lab. Activity It may include dialogue writing (Dialogue to Prose and Prose to Dialogue), writing about a picture/some object, writing a report, writing on a topic of general interest, listening exercise, English phonetic exercise, etc. It will be decided by examiners on the spot.	30%
Viva Voce Questions will be based on the project file. Examiners may ask other non-technical questions related to the student's life and interests.	40%
Total	100%

For the final result, marks will be calculated as per the criterion laid down by the university (which may change as per the university norms):

Component	Weightage
Marks Obtained in the lab examination	80%
Continuous Assessment (Based on the Student's Regularity & Class Performance)	20%
Total	100%

5. MOOCs:

In the interest of students, the department is committed to including MOOCs in the programme as per the norms of the university and the UGC. It is to mention here that to take appropriate action for the introduction of MOOCs/online courses for the benefit of students, the UGC Gazette of India Notification No. 295, dated July 20, 2016 (Credit Framework for Online Learning Courses through SWAYAM Regulation 2016, New Delhi) was approved by the BoM in its meeting held at New Delhi DAVCMC on 26.10.2018.

Each student will be allowed to opt for MOOCs in lieu of Discipline Specific Electives, General Electives and Skill Enhancement Courses. The list of those MOOCs which will be considered equivalent to the prescribed courses in the syllabus will be prepared by the department. The department shall select a number of courses to be permitted for the transfer of credits through SWAYAM (e.g., courses in high demand for which faculty members are not available or for supplementing teaching-learning process) while ensuring that physical facilities like laboratories, computer facilities, library, etc. required for such courses are made available to students. The maximum credits that can be transferred to a student's degree will be as per the norms of the university and the UGC.

The department shall designate a Course Coordinator/Facilitator to guide students throughout these courses and facilitate/conduct the lab/practical sessions/examinations (if any) as per the norms.

The department shall widely disseminate information about MOOCs and motivate students through faculty members, notice boards, student forums, workshops, university website, etc. The department shall facilitate the registration of students.

On receipt of the course completion certificate from the host institute, the university will give equivalent credit weightage (as per the norms of the university) for the credits earned through SWAYAM.

The courses offered on SWAYAM would supplement the teaching-learning process in the university.
